Re: United States v. Mark Nordlicht, et al., No. 1:16-cr-00640-DLI

Dear Chief Judge Irizarry:

We represent defendant David Levy in the above-captioned matter. We write in response to the letter written on behalf of certain Platinum Fund investors entered on May 5, 2017 (the "Letter"). Dkt. No. 130. Among other things, these investors seek certain changes to the current management of PPVA and PPCO, as well as changes to the defendants' bail conditions such as allowing the defendants to work together out of the Platinum offices several days a week with representatives of the Receiver.

Notwithstanding the requests made in the Letter, we wish to be clear that we are not seeking to modify the conditions of Mr. Levy's bail at this time. Mr. Levy continues to support the Receiver and the Liquidator's efforts on behalf of the investors, consistent with the bail conditions set by the Court. Should the Court, the Receiver, or the Liquidator believe there is any additional assistance that Mr. Levy can provide to Platinum investors, he is of course happy to comply.

Respectfully submitted,

WILSON SONSINI GOODRICH & ROSATI
Professional Corporation
